Hello! My name is Dylan.
My class went to the new Hong Kong Palace Museum!
I felt really excited about this fabulous trip!

I was blown away by the museum building!
It was breathtaking! Who knew it could've been this big?
I took many photos from many different angles!

When we went inside the gigantic building, I saw many ancient artifacts put on display. I saw a bright red vase, a katana, and a silver pouring cup! They were all very fascinating!

I found the museum's bookshop very interesting too! There were many types of books about the history of China.

At the corner of the bookshelf, I found an unusual book with a strange yellow code.

I opened the unusual book.
To my surprise, a portal appeared!
I was so shocked, but curious too!
So, I jumped into the portal without hesitation.

I was pushed out of the portal by a powerful force.
I saw an ancient Chinese building.

Well, wait! I was lost!

“Where am I? How do I get back? Is that time traveling to the past?”

There was no answer to my questions yet.
So I decided that for the time being,
I should explore the wonders of ancient China.

How gorgeous were these buildings!
“Is this the Forbidden City?” I wondered.

An armed Chinese guard spotted me!
“Does he think I am an intruder?” He started chasing me!

I ran indoors, looked around, and peeked over my shoulder.
The guard was gone!

Strangely though, I found myself among many treasures! Some of them were even the ones I saw in the Hong Kong Palace Museum!

I couldn't help looking at the treasures around me.
But when I walked into another room, my bad luck struck again!
Oh God, there was another guard there!

I sighed, I couldn't run anywhere else!
So I surrendered, deciding to face my soon fate.

He escorted me to the room next door. The room had a huge painting of a white horse on the wall. It looked gorgeous. And there stood the Empress of China! I was shocked!

The guard asked if he could lock me up. But then the Empress said, "Wait!" I rejoiced when she said, "I forgive you!"

The Empress showed me around where she lived. She pointed at the window, and said, "This is the Forbidden City." I looked around, and a painting of a Chinese room captured my eyes! It had many different colours in it. To my surprise, the Empress told me to step into the painting! I was confused, why was she telling me to do so?

I had no choice but to be brave.
So I jumped into that beautiful painting. I saw the Empress waving me goodbye!
I started to feel dizzy. I blacked out.

What had happened?
I was inside the Hong Kong Palace Museum again.
And there on the wall, I saw a painting of me with the Empress!
After this visit, I am really interested to learn more about Chinese History!
